National PhD. Programme in “The New Public Administration: data and human resources”

This call for applications governs the procedures for admission to the National PhD programme in “The New Public Administration: data and human resources” XXXIX cycle, with administrative offices at the University of Milano-Bicocca.

In the Description Sheet attached to the Call as an integral part of it, information is provided on the research projects, the number of places available, with the specification of the scholarships and the selection procedures:

The programme is in agreement with the following Universities:

- Università degli Studi di Milano-Bicocca (administrative office)
- Università degli Studi di Bergamo
- Università degli Studi di Brescia
- Università degli Studi di Firenze
- Università degli Studi di Genova
- Università degli Studi di Milano
- Università degli Studi di Padova
- Università degli Studi del Piemonte Orientale
- Università degli Studi di Torino
- Università degli Studi di Trento
- Università degli Studi di Venezia Ca' Foscari

The PhD students enrolled, because they are involved in a single, joint and shared didactic-scientific project, carry out their own research and education activities in the different locations of the universities/institutions involved in the national PhD programme. These PhD students are guaranteed an effective sharing of the necessary structures for the conduct of education and research activities aimed at the realization of the PhD project.

The National Recovery and Resilience Plan (PNRR) under Mission 4 Component 1 and 2 has allocated resources for the funding of doctoral scholarships for pathways dedicated to:

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

- PNRR themes;
- public administration;
- innovative pathways that meet the innovation needs of enterprises.

The MUR has implemented these support measures of the PhD with the initiatives contained in the Ministerial Decrees n. 118 and n. 117 of 2 March 2023 with which the resources allocated by the PNRR for the funding of scholarships doctorate to be valid on the 39th cycle.

The University, on the basis of Ministerial Decree No. 118 of 2 March 2023, with funding from the European Union and from the Next Generation EU initiative, announces doctoral scholarships relating respectively to the actions of Mission 4 component 1, Investments 3.4 of PNRR and 4.1 of PNRR. These grants will be awarded for projects with themes consistent with the aforementioned D.M. and, in particular, for programmes dedicated to digital and environmental transitions (Investment 3.4) and for human capital engaged in research-oriented activities, public administrations and cultural heritage (Investment 4.1).

These projects, pursuant to the aforementioned DM 118/2023 and DM 117/2023 are:

- a. consistent with the objectives of Regulation (EU) 2021/241, with the general strategy and the Detail Sheet of the PNRR Component;
- b. oriented to the achievement of the results measured by reference to milestones and targets that may be assigned to the Investment within the terms set by the Plan;
- c. comply with the principle "not to cause significant damage" (DNSH) pursuant to art. 17 of Regulation (EU) 2020/852 in line with the technical guidelines prepared by the European Commission (Communication of the European Commission 2021/C58/01);
- d. suitable to address and bridge gender inequalities;
- e. in support of the participation of women and young people, also in line with the provisions of Decree-Law no. 77 of 31 May 2021 (c.d. Simplification Decree), as amended by the conversion Law of 29 July 2021, n. 108, concerning the management of the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (PNRR).

The interventions targeted by the initiative must implement the provisions of the PNRR and the aforementioned DM 117/23 and 118/23 depending on the funds from which the positions are activated.

These doctoral programmes include periods of study and research in enterprise from a minimum of six (6) months to a maximum of twelve (12) months and periods of study and research abroad from a minimum of six (6) months to a maximum of eighteen (18) months as follows:

			Period abroad	Periods in enterprise

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

DM 118	M4C1 I 4.1	Programmes dedicated to Public Administrations	mandatory	mandatory in enterprises, research center or Public Administrations

Subsequently, the MUR will proceed to the verification of eligibility for support of the PNRR of the projects and the ANVUR to the verification of consistency with the requirements of DM 118/23. After completing these checks, the MUR communicates the final allocation of the funding due to each University.

Under Ministerial Decree 226/2021, the PhD Programmes may be activated subject to accreditation or verification by the Ministry of University and Research (MUR) that the accreditation requirements are maintained. Therefore, successful candidates may only enroll following the favorable outcome of such verification.

By submitting the application for admission according to the procedures laid down in Article 4, the candidate accepts the rules contained in this call for applications. Any breach of these rules will result in exclusion from the selection process. In particular, candidates who do not upload their research project during the application, will not be admitted to the examinations.

All notices to candidates concerning this call for applications will be made by e-mail. For this purpose, the e-mail address specified by the candidate when registering on the website shall be used (art. 4).

Article 2

(Admission sessions)

Candidates that have applied to Call published by Rector's Decree n. 891/2023, Prot. no. 0146871 of 20 March 2023 Session I or those who want to apply to Session II may apply to this Call. However subjects enrolled on Session I positions are not eligible to participate to this selections. These subjects, if registered to this Call, will be automatically excluded from it in case of enrolment after sliding of the ranking.

The beginning of academic activities is scheduled for 1 November 2023 unless different deadlines established by the Ministry and Anvur for the verification of eligibility for support and consistency of research projects assigned. In any case, the activities of the PhDs funded under Ministerial Decrees 118/2023 must be started by 30 December 2023.

APPLICATION DEADLINE	BEGINNING of ACTIVITIES

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

25 July 2023 at noon (Italian time)	1 November 2023 except for different timeframes established by MUR and ANVUR

The positions related to agreements signed after the publication of Session I will be offered in Session II provided the relevant agreements are signed at an appropriate time.

The increase in scholarships may increase the overall number of positions available under this call. Such additional positions will be notified by a subsequent decree, as an integral part of it, published the day before the deadline of Session II at the following link:

<https://en.unimib.it/education/postgraduates/doctoral-research-phd-programmes/applying-doctorate>

Article 3

(Eligibility for admission)

Those who are in possession of the following qualifications may apply for admission, without citizenship restrictions:

1. post-graduate (second cycle) degree;
2. degree obtained under the laws in force before Ministerial Decree no. 509/1999 (old system degree);
3. master's degree issued by institutions that are part of the AFAM (advanced artistic and musical education) sector;
4. a foreign degree, as long as it is equivalent in length of studies, level, and subject area to the Italian degree required for admission to the course. The suitability of foreign qualifications is evaluated by the Selection Board. In case the Degree is evaluated as non-eligible, the applicant will be excluded from the selection process.

Students who have not yet obtained their degree may apply for both Sessions, provided they earn their degree by 31 October 2023. Accepted students who fail to meet this requirement will lose their right to admission. Candidates who have not yet earned their degree are required to communicate, not later than 3 November 2023, the date and grade of the degree earned, by sending an e-mail to the Doctoral School Sector (dottorati@unimib.it) that has in attachment the copy of their Degree or, if they are Italian or EU citizens, a statement in lieu of certification.

For scholarships funded by PNRR ex D.M. 118/23 and 117/23, if provided, different timeframes established by MUR and ANVUR will have to be respected.

Note: Undergraduates are considered those who have never obtained an academic degree referred to in points 1-4. Those who are already in possession of these qualifications and are enrolled in any second degree will enter the competition as graduates.

For those who have obtained more than one academic qualification (always referred to in points 1-4), the Selection Board will consider the first qualification obtained chronologically as the admission qualification.

Those who are already enrolled in the same PhD programme at this University cannot apply.

Article 4

(Submission of applications for admission and degrees)

To participate in the admission test, all applicants must submit their application online, directly from the website of the University of Milano-Bicocca, by accessing the Online Registry's Office – admission test (https://s3w.si.unimib.it/Home.do?cod_lingua=eng).

No paper documents will have to be delivered to the offices.

APPLICATION DEADLINE
25 July 2023 at noon (Italian time)

The application has to be drawn up as a self-certification, for all legal purposes, under the art. 46 and 47 of DPR 445/2000 and further amendments and it is valid for all legal purposes.

The documents attached to the application (assessable qualifications) have to be drawn up as self-certifications or statements in lieu of affidavit as required by law and as indicated in the following tables A and B.

To this end, candidates may use the models of self-certification and statement in lieu of affidavit available on the website at <https://www.unimib.it/didattica/offerta-formativa/dottorato-ricerca/carriera/modulistica-dottorandi> .

Note: Pursuant to Article 40 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000, as amended by art. 15 of Law no. 183/2011, qualifications issued by the public administration must also be confirmed through self-certification.

The statement made by the candidate, which for all purposes substitutes the certification, must contain all the elements needed to assess the qualification to be submitted and its truthfulness. Omission of any element shall result in the non-evaluation of the self-certified qualification. Self-certifications are only valid if signed with an autograph signature.

It is not necessary to produce the self-certifications of qualifications obtained or to be acquired at the University of

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

Milano-Bicocca. Their acquisition will be carried out ex officio.

European candidates can produce the self-certifications duly signed, in Italian or English, as indicated in tables A and B. Non-Eu citizens, regularly residing in Italy, can produce the self-certifications, in Italian or English, only concerning states, facts, and personal data that can be certified or attested by Italian public authorities.

The application procedure consists of two phases:

1. Registration on the University website

(https://s3w.si.unimib.it/Home.do?cod_lingua=eng), at the end of which students are assigned a user name and a password; if the candidate already has the access credentials for the private area (for example if he/she is a student or a former student of Milano-Bicocca University), he/she can skip this step. These credentials will be needed later for registration if the candidate is admitted to the PhD programme.

2. Filling out the application for admission: by using their personal credentials, applicants must login and select "Admissions."

During the registration process, applicants must enter the details of their identity document and upload the ID document and an ID photo in digital format (bitmap or jpeg) with a resolution of at least 300x400 pixels. The following documents must also be uploaded (applicants are recommended to prepare the documentation in PDF files before registering for the tests. Every document must not exceed the size of 25MB):

Tab. A

1. Signed curriculum vitae et studiorum, preferably in Europass format:

<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>

Note the information included in the curriculum vitae will not be assessed by the Selection.

2. Any publications in extenso or conference papers (No self-certification)

Only publications produced in full will be evaluated. Texts or articles accepted for publication, within the deadline of the call, must be submitted together with the document of acceptance of the publisher.

Note Candidate must produce a signed statement in lieu of affidavit, attesting the conformity to the original document.

4. Any documentation attesting to research and study collaborations. (No self-certification)
5. Any documentation related to periods of study and/or research abroad. (No self-certification)
6. Self-certification of the exams taken in Universities other than the University of Milano-Bicocca with relative marks (only for students who have not obtained their degree yet); https://www.unimib.it/sites/default/files/Allegati/Dichiarazione%20sostitutiva%20di%20certificazione_conseg.titolo%20ed%20esami.pdf
7. The research project/s concerning the selected grant/s (see the “Description sheet” attached) Note: The research project discussed at the interview stage is not binding to the assignment of the actual thesis topic in case of admission to the programme.

Note: If the foreign degree has already been declared equivalent to the Italian degree required for admission to the programme (not mandatory), it is sufficient to attach a copy of the Decree of equivalence without adding the documentation referred to in table B. In this case, the title is an Italian title for all intents and purposes.

Candidates with a foreign degree must also upload the following documents:

* Candidates may take advantage of the agreement between the University of Milano-Bicocca and CIMEA (ENIC/NARIC network): <https://www.unimib.it/internazionalizzazione/informazioni-studenti-stranieri/attestato-comparabilita-cimea-italian-enic-naric>

If the documentation produced does not clearly indicate the duration of the academic studies and/or the eligibility of the foreign qualification for access to the PhD programme in the country of reference, or the scale of value to which the degree and exam scores refer, the Selection Board may deny admission to the tests or not evaluate the degree or exam scores.

Candidates with foreign qualifications are admitted to the selection process under the condition to produce if the application is successful, the Diploma Supplement or the certificate of comparability issued by CIMEA or ENIC-NARIC, as indicated in art. 14, alternatively the Statement of local validity is accepted too.

Candidates will be able to change, add or remove the submitted documents only before the completion of the application, after which it will be impossible.

The qualifications submitted must be possessed by the deadline of the Session. Declarations, titles, and publications or requests for modification of titles already deposited received once the Session is closed will not be considered.

After completing this procedure, applicants must click the button PAYMENTS and pay € 10.00 as a fee to cover expenses using the PagoPA payment system.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

The payment must be made by the date indicated below under penalty of exclusion from the test:

PAYMENT DEADLINE
26 July 2023

Only payments made within this final deadline will be considered valid and, therefore, any claim for non-payment or late payment, even if not attributable to the applicant, will be considered unacceptable.

The payment receipt should be carefully kept by the applicant. The University Administration reserves the right to request it as proof of payment.

Citizens from Non-EU countries, who are not residents in Italy, are exempt from the fee for participation in the competitive examination.

Once the University of Milano-Bicocca has received the payment, candidates will be able to view and print, through the On-line Registrar's service, the registration receipt that has to be carefully kept.

Under Article 75 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000, if, based on appropriate checks, the Administration finds out that the information provided by the candidate in his/her statement is false, the declarant shall forfeit any benefits obtained through a decision issued based on such false statement.

The university administration shall not be liable in the event of loss of documents due to errors in the residence, address, or e-mail notified by the applicant, failure or delay in notifying changes in such contact information, or telematic disruptions not attributable to the Administration's fault.

Article 5

(Candidates with disabilities (DIS) or with Specific Learning Difficulties (DSA))

Candidates with disabilities (DIS) or with Specific Learning Difficulties (DSA) can ask to benefit from the specific support by attaching the documents certifying their disability during application.

The disability certification must:

- be issued by INPS, according to Law no. 118 of 30 March 1971 (civil disability) or

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

- be issued by the public health authority responsible for the area, according to Law no. 104/92, as amended (disability statement)

The DSA diagnosis must:

- be compliant with the criteria set by the Consensus Conference (2011);
- contain the nosographic codes, the express name of the specific learning difficulty in question, contain the information necessary to understand the individual characteristics with indications of areas of strength and weakness;
- be issued by facilities of the NHC or by institutions or professionals accredited by the Regions and not more than 3 years if performed before the legal age of the candidate (art. 3 l. n. 170/2010 and subsequent State-Regions Agreement of 24 July 2012).

Note: Given the current health emergency, outdated certifications will also be accepted. These certifications should be updated before enrolment (mandatory).*

For any additional supports arranged by the University, candidates will be contacted directly by Space B.inclusion.

Failure of the candidate to confirm by e-mail will be considered as a waiver of the requested supports.

For further information please contact Space B.inclusion, well in advance of examination, by writing to supporti.ammissioni@unimib.it

Failure to submit the documentation online by the deadline specified in this call for proposals will not entitle the applicant to use the requested support.

Article 6 (Project scholarships)

The description sheet specifies the scholarships for the project, tied to the performance of specific research projects. The recipients of these positions are required to perform the specified research. More details on research projects can be found on the University website

<https://en.unimib.it/education/postgraduates/doctoral-research-phd-programmes/applying-doctorate>

Candidates will be able to express up to a maximum of two preferences by selecting, during application, the project acronyms.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

Candidates will have to upload a number of projects equal to the number of preferences expressed, as stated in art. 4 of the Call.

Article 7

(Admission tests)

Admission shall take place according to the procedures described for each Programme in the annex to this Call ("Description sheets XXXIX cycle")

The selection procedure aims to ascertain the applicant's aptitude for scientific research and consists of an assessment of the qualifications of candidates combined with an oral examination, as established by each Academic Board.

Oral examinations are public.

The Selection Board has 80 points in total to assign.

20 points are reserved for the evaluation of the qualifications. Qualifications are assessed by the Selection Board before the oral examination. For each Programme, if indicated in the relevant description sheet of a PhD Programme, a minimum score may be requested to access the oral examination. If the minimum score in the assessment of titles is not reached, the candidates will not be admitted to the oral exam.

The outcome of the assessment of the qualifications will also contain the breakdown of the candidates on the exam days and will be published on the University website on page <https://en.unimib.it/education/postgraduates/doctoral-research-phd-programmes/applying-doctorate>

This publication has the value of notification for all purposes.

A total of 60 points are reserved for the oral exam. At least 40 points in the oral exam are required to achieve eligibility.

The final score is given by the sum of the scores reported in the assessment of the qualifications and the oral exam.

Article 8

(Interview)

The interview must take place remotely through a platform made available by the University, to this end candidates must indicate an e-mail account that the Selection Board will use for the video call.

Candidates must be available at the e-mail address, previously communicated, on the day indicated for the oral exam, according to the calendar represented in each Programme Description sheet or the Qualification evaluation table, in case of subdivision of the exams into several days. The Selection Board may set a specific time for starting the interview in agreement with the candidate.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

For identification and under penalty of exclusion from the competition, candidates, before the interview begins, must show an identification document, preferably the same one that was indicated during the admission phase.

Article 9

(Grounds for exclusion)

The submission of the application for admission, under the procedures referred to in art. 5, implies the acceptance by the candidates of the rules contained in this Call, failure to comply with them implies exclusion from the competition.

In particular:

- Failure to submit the research project, entails non-admission and therefore exclusion from the examination tests.
- The evaluation of non-eligibility, by the Selection Board, of the academic degree obtained abroad entails the exclusion from the selection process.
- If the documentation produced does not clearly indicate the duration of the academic studies and/or the eligibility of the foreign degree for access to the doctorate in the country of reference or the scale of value to which the degree and exam scores refer, the Selection Board may deny admission to the tests or not evaluate the degree or exam score.
- For identification and under penalty of exclusion from the competition, candidates, before the interview begins, must show an identity document, preferably the same one that was indicated during the admission phase.
- After completing the registration procedure, it will be necessary to make the payment of € 10.00 as a fee through the PagoPA payment system within the terms provided for in art. 5, under penalty of exclusion from the tests. Citizens from Non-EU countries, who are not residents in Italy, are exempt from the fee for participation in the competitive examination.
- A candidate may be excluded from the competition if he/she has failed to specify his/her e-mail address (account), the connection is not available, he/she cannot be found on the day or time set, or if he/she does not show a valid identity document. The University of Milano - Bicocca declines any responsibility if technical reasons prevent the regular conduct of the interview.
- If the candidate registered at Session II subsequently enrolls on a position in Session I, he/she will be automatically excluded from the competition for Session II.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

Article 10 (Selection Boards)

The Selection Boards supervising the tests for admission to the PhD programmes shall be formed and appointed following the laws and regulations in force.

If the need arises, the Selection Board may avail on external experts for a specific opinion. The appointment of experts can be arranged at the request of the Selection Board by the Procedure Manager.

Article 11 (Merit rankings and registration procedures)

The merit rankings of the eligible candidates are formed according to the decreasing order of the scores of the overall vote reported by each candidate and according to the sub-rankings of the project/topic. Rankings are published in the Official Register of the University and on the website: <https://www.unimib.it/didattica/offerta-formativa/dottorato-ricerca/accedere-al-dottorato/graduatorie-rankings-39th-cycle>

Note: Only the merit rankings published on this website page shall be valid for admission to each PhD programme. The publication is considered an official notification in all respects; accordingly, participants in the exams shall not receive any personal communication, except for filling a vacant position.

The merit ranking lists will also specify the enrollment procedures for the PhD Programmes.

The positions will be allocated as follows:

1. For each project linked to one or more scholarships, the Committee will draw up a merit sub-ranking and will assign the relevant scholarships
2. If a candidate is the winner of more than one project scholarship (therefore the candidate is included in the relevant sub-rankings) the Committee will decide which scholarship to assign
3. If in the sub-ranking of a research project there are no eligible candidates, the Committee may assign the position to the candidate with the highest score in all the sub-rankings of that curriculum
4. If some scholarships of a curriculum are not assigned, the Committee may decide to transfer them to the other curriculum and assign them according to point 3.

At the end the Committee will draw up the final merit ranking.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

In the event of equal merit, gender balance is considered, that is, the gender prevailing among the candidates placed in a higher position in the same sub-ranking is a minority. In case of further equality, the less senior candidate prevails.

Any vacant positions will be offered to those who hold a useful position in the sub-ranking, with priority and in the general merit ranking. Candidates will be contacted by e-mail from the PhD School Sector.

- The reassignment of vacant positions will also be carried out if any of the admitted candidates waives or lapses from admission to the Programme by 1 December 2023 or by the timeframes established by MUR. In the case of waiver or forfeiture within this deadline, the PhD student has no right to the accrual of the scholarship.
- If a candidate is offered a position of the Call DR n. 891/2023, prot. N. 0146871 of 20 March 2023 and a position of this Call, simultaneously as a result of scrolling, the candidate must decide which one to accept.

The positions with PNRR scholarship ex DM 118 of 2 March 2023 will have necessarily to be accepted with scholarship mandatory for all the three years of the PhD programme.

The enrollment must be carried out following the instructions published on the University website at <https://en.unimib.it/education/postgraduates/doctoral-research-phd-programmes/applying-doctorate>. Failure to complete the enrollment procedure, within the terms indicated in the margin of the merit ranking, will result in the forfeiture of the right to admission to the Programme.

Article 12

(Additional provisions for students with foreign qualifications)

Candidates with a foreign qualification admitted to the Programme, if they have not submitted it during the admission phase, must submit within 60 days of enrollment, under penalty of career block and subsequent forfeiture, the diploma supplement in English, issued by the same institution that issued the qualification, drawn up according to the model developed by the European Commission, the Council of Europe, and UNESCO/CEPES, or the certificate of comparability issued by CIMEA

<https://www.unimib.it/internazionalizzazione/informazioni-studenti-stranieri/attestato-comparabilita-cimea-italian-enic-naric> or by ENIC-NARIC centers.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

As an alternative, it is possible to present the Statement of Local Validity for the qualification, issued by the Italian Diplomatic Representation in the country of the reference educational system under which the qualification was issued.

Those who intend to ask for the benefits of the right to study will have to produce the documents requested by the respective Call.

Presentation of a copy of the student/university entry visa or a copy of the residence permit is required.

ATTENTION: Non-EU citizens requiring a visa must necessarily pre-register on the University Portal <https://www.universitaly.it/index.php/dashboard> under the menu item "International students" to apply for an entry visa.

Enrolment is completed only upon issuance of the entry visa for study in Italy, which is the exclusive responsibility of the Italian Diplomatic Representations abroad, regardless of eligibility acquired through this Call.

For information on foreign qualifications and the enrollment procedures of foreign students consult <https://en.unimib.it/education/postgraduates/doctoral-research-phd-programmes/applying-doctorate> or contact welcome.desk@unimib.it.

Article 13

(Commitment of PhD students)

Enrollment in the PhD programme involves a full-time and exclusive commitment. The Academic Board shall assess whether a candidate's occupation is compatible, provided it involves a limited time commitment.

The PhD student must participate in the activities planned in his/her curriculum, as indicated by the Academic Board, and must carry out the research assignments. The simultaneous enrollment in other graduate Programmes is governed by the regulations in force.

Article 14

(Scholarships)

The amount of the PhD scholarship is equal to € 16,243.00 per year gross of the social security charges borne by the fellow. The scholarship is exempt from local income tax and personal income tax (IRPEF).

Project Scholarships may only be awarded to candidates who have opted for them under art. 6 of this Call and have been deemed eligible by the Selection Board.

The amount of the scholarship is increased, for the period of stay abroad, by 50%, for a maximum period of 12 months, 18 in the case of jointly supervised theses or PhD programmes in the associated form.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

The period abroad is normally foreseen and therefore, if it is not carried out, adequate justification must be provided by the Academic Board.

The scholarship is granted for one year and is renewed for each year of the programme, provided that the student passes the test for admission to the next year.

The scholarship is paid in monthly installments in arrears.

To take advantage of the scholarship, the winner must comply with the following requirements:

1. under art. 16, paragraph 17, of the Regulation of PhD Programmes, the scholarship is compatible with other income, provided that the latter does not exceed the maximum ceiling provided by the Board of Directors of the University of Milano-Bicocca in compliance with the legislation. For the calendar year 2024, the gross annual personal income limit corresponds to the amount of the annual PhD scholarship awarded by the University of Milano-Bicocca;
2. scholarships cannot be combined with other scholarships, regardless of the reasons for which they are granted, except, where possible on the basis of the type of funding, those awarded by national or foreign institutions that can be used to supplement the training or research activity of the scholarship recipients, through periods of stay abroad.
3. candidates have not been granted any other scholarship for a PhD programme, even if not complete.

For foreign winners, phd scholarship will be awarded only after receiving proof of obtaining the Italian tax code.

Public employees admitted to PhD Programmes enjoy, for the normal duration of the Programme, the leave provided for by collective bargaining or, for employees under public law, special leave for study reasons, compatible with the needs of the administration, under art. 2 of Law n. 476 of August 13, 1984, and subsequent amendments, with or without research scholarships and unless explicitly waived, only if they are enrolled for the first time in a PhD Programme, regardless of the disciplinary field.

Please remind that positions funded by PNRR ex D.M. 118 of 2 March 2023 should be accepted with commitment to do the doctoral course necessarily with PNRR grant for all three years of the doctoral course.

Article 15

(Tuition and Fees)

The amount of fees required for access to and attendance at PhD Programmes are approved annually by the Board of Directors.

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

For the academic year 2023/2024, unless otherwise approved by the Board of Directors, all PhD students are required to pay, at the time of enrollment, the sum of € 156.00, as specified below:

- Stamp duty € 16.00
- Regional tax for the right to study € 140.00

PhD students, recipients of PhD scholarships, have to pay the second installment, consisting entirely of the single contribution and defined based on the ISEE (Equivalent economic status indicator) and the calculation for Programmes in the area of contribution A – merit students, from a minimum of € 0.00 up to a maximum of € 1,200.00, by May 16, 2024.

In order to correctly calculate the second installment, PhD students must obtain the ISEE certification for subsidies for the right to University study, by submitting the single statement in lieu of certification to CAAF (tax assistance) centers, other authorized entities, or the INPS website. The University will automatically receive the relevant data. The deadline for submitting the single statement in lieu of certification will be published on the following page <https://en.unimib.it/services/offices-and-facilities/fees-and-funding>.

Under art. 8, paragraph 2, of the Decree of the President of the Council of Ministers no. 159 of December 5, 2013, the family unit of the applicant for the benefits for the PhD Programme is formed exclusively by the same applicant, by the spouse, by the children under the age of 18, as well as by the children of legal age, according to the rules referred to in paragraphs 2 to 5 of art. 3, and in any case without prejudice to the possibility for the beneficiary to constitute the family unit according to the ordinary rules referred to in art. 3.

For more detailed information on ISEE declarations for those enrolled in PhD Programmes, see the University website at <https://en.unimib.it/services/offices-and-facilities/fees-and-funding>.

Article 16

(Obtaining the qualification)

The PhD qualification is awarded upon completion of the PhD Programme, upon passing the final examination, which involves the submission of a written thesis (PhD thesis) giving proof of original research work that has produced significant scientific results.

Article 17

(Applicable law)

Note: In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the English version and Italian version of this Call, the Italian language version shall prevail.

For all matters not covered in this Call for applications, the laws and regulations on PhD Programmes shall apply.

Article 18

(Processing of personal data)

The data will be processed under Legislative Decree No. 196 of 2003 (personal data protection code) and its amendments and additions, as well as EU Regulation no. 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR). The complete information on the processing of personal data can be consulted at the following link <https://www.unimib.it/informativa-studenti>.

Article 19
