Organizer: University of Milano-Bicocca

DESCRIPTION

The webinar addresses the current discussion on end-of-life issues with particular focus on assisted suicide, euthanasia and participation of terminally ill patients to scientific research. The main ethical and legal issues will be addressed as they have emerged in the European context.

SPEAKER

Silvia Salardi is Associate Professor of Philosophy of Law and Bioethics. She has dedicated the past 15 years to analyse and discuss changes brought about by emerging technologies within medicine and to propose governance pathways to address the ethical-legal questions arising by unprecedented technological innovation.
